SOURCE

1. Former members of the East River Column* in Kwangtung have organized a new anti-Communist group. The leadership and strength of this group is not known, but it is believed to include elements originally giving allegiance to TS'AI Ting-k'ai and LI Chi-shen. The flag of the group is different from that of both the Communists and the Nationalists. It bears a white sun in a blue sky over a yellow ground.
2. One village of the Hsun Te district of Kwangtung has no Communist troops or veteran political workers to carry out Communist plans, only a young man native to the village who joined the Communist guerrillas early in their resistance to the Nationalists. His instructions are ignored and he himself obeys the counsels of the village elders.
